Dr. Joseph John Mills Delivers Commencement Address.

The college commencement exercises were held Wednesday, June 10, at 10 a. m., in Wood-Mar hall. The music was furnished by Prof. and Mrs. Hull, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The address of the day was given by Dr. Joseph John Mills, former president of Earlham College, and was full of inspiration and encouragement. The theme of the address was "Brains, Energy, Trustworthiness." The decorations, furnished by the class of '15, were very appropriate.

Academy Commencement

The graduation exercises of the academy were held on June 9, at 2 p. m., in Wood-Mar hall. The exercises were given by members of the class. An oration, "Service, the Secret of the Ages," was well delivered by Miss Esther Miles. Miss Marjorie Gregory read a paper entitled "The Educational Work of Friends in America." Miss Corinne Bartholomew, of Everett, Washington, charmed the audience with her sweet musical voice.

Class Day.

The senior class day on Monday night was certainly a success. "Talking Movies," which represented the faculty in every day life, made the hit of the evening. Mr. Ray Weatherhead starred as Prof. Hawkins, and Miss Elma Paulsen presented well Mrs. Hodgins' dignity. Miss May Jones surely must have practiced in order to get Miss Kennworthy's walk so perfectly, while Mr. O. C. Hadley and Miss Daisy Newhouse took every one by surprise in presenting a breakfast scene in Prof. R. W. Lewis' home. Mr. Ray Langworthy strikingly showed Pres. L. T. Pennington fishing while on an endowment trip. Mr. E. H. R. Thun represented Prof. Mendenhall and Mr. York did himself proud. The entire program was interesting and splendidly gotten up.

The junior class enjoyed a picnic on Chehalem Mountain, under the care of their reverend chaperon, June 4.

Faculty Reception.

The annual reception for the senior class was given Friday night, May 29, by the faculty, at Pres. L. T. Pennington's residence on Third street. The faculty and seniors were in the receiving line. The rooms were beautifully decorated with ferns and white roses. The junior and sophomore girls presided at the punch bowl.

The tennis singles were captured by H. D. Marshall, but the real championship games were played off some time before the finals, as often happens in a tournament.

Jolly School Days Are Past

For some they are indeed past, but for others only a few short weeks will intervene until school begins again.

We, as a student body, are especially proud of our graduating class this year. They have played their part well during the few years they have been in Pacific College.

The school will certainly feel the loss, as this splendid class of nine members goes from her doors, but we rejoice with them that they go forth to fill places of greater responsibilities, influence and helpfulness.

As we look back over the past school year, we see many places we think might have been improved just a little. Mistakes have been made and some things that we wished to see accomplished have not been consummated, but in all it has been a successful school year. Let us look forward to the coming year with a greater degree of expectation. Let every old student bring a new student back to school September 21 or "bust." It is surprising what a fellow can do if he just sets his mind to it and does it.

Come back full of new determination, grit, loyalty and courage. If we don't put somebody on the "blink" then we'll know the reason why. In the meantime, boost for Pacific.

We regret to say that Mr. Gulley, the editor-in-chief, has not been able to put out the Crescent since coming into office, and thus the associate editor has had more than she bargained for. We sincerely hope Mr. Gulley can return next year and take up his duties as editor.

Basebal Season Ends

Pacific College...2 Pacific College...15
Chemawa.....4 Alumni.....5

In a short seven-inning game, and before the largest crowd that has been on the grounds recently, the Pacific College nine were handed the small end of a 4-2 score by the Chemawa Indians, on Rose Day, May 25, on the home field.

In the initial inning the home team allowed two runs that should and could have been prevented, and which cost them the game. After the first inning the Quakers tightened up and steadily improved in playing to the end of the game. In the estimation of the crowd, the score would have told a different story had the full nine innings been played.

The last game of the season was played June 8, between the college team with a faculty battery, consisting of Pennington on the mound and Marshall behind the bat, and the Pacific College Alumni. The game was marked by errors and other things too numerous to mention, and resulted in a score of 5 runs for the old-time stars and 15 for the young bloods.

In summing up the season's work, the most noticeable thing is the decided improvement in the team's playing in the last few games of the season. Gulley, from the box, has outclassed every one of his opponents, and the battery has been good, but lamentable errors marked the first games played. More hard, consistent practice in the early part of the season is the only cure for this fault, and the only thing that will inspire confidence in the players in the opening of the season.

Senior Girls Serve Ice Cream at Y. W. C. A.

The last meeting of the year the senior girls had charge. After an impressive talk on "Friendship," by Miss E. Paulsen, the meeting adjourned for a general good time. Ice cream was served by the senior girls.

On Monday evening, June 1, Miss Sutton was pleasantly surprised when a crowd of Y. W. C. A. girls went home with her. A very enjoyable time was spent on the lawn of J. C. Colcord's home. We are all sorry to learn that Miss Sutton is not coming back next year.

The senior class spent Wednesday, June 3, at Lafayette Locks.

H. C. Jones, of Laramie, Wyo., brother of Miss Mary Jones, '14, is visiting his parents at Rex, Oregon, and attended commencement.

The baccalaureate services of the college commencement were held in the Friends church Sunday, June 7. Pres. L. T. Pennington preached a very good sermon and Prof. Hull had charge of the music.

The Misses Gladys Hannon and Kathleen Gass entertained a number of their girl friends at a delightful reception in honor of the senior girls at the home of Miss Gass, May 27. The house was tastefully decorated with roses and a dainty luncheon was served.

The annual address to the Christian associations was given by Rev. George C. Ritchey, pastor of the Christian church, Sunday evening.

Pacific College will be well represented at the Columbia Beach Y. M. C. A. conference. The following left Friday morning for the beach: Paul Lewis, Rae Langworthy, Ross Miles, Lloyd Edwards, Maurice Walton, Henry Keeney, and on Monday Pres. L. T. Pennington and Lisle Hubbard.

Prof. M. D. Hawkins left for his home in Indiana on June 11, where he expects to spend his vacation. We wonder if he will do as Prof. Weesner did when he "spent" the summer at "home." Miss Kenworthy left for her home in Richmond, Ind., twenty-four hours behind M. D. Wonder when she'll catch him?

Cuy E. Needham, the student Y. M. C. A. secretary, blew into town about noon June 10, and the Columbia Beach crowd enjoyed a "feed" down in the canyon. So did the mosquitoes.

Miss Sutton left for her home in Seattle in company with Miss Kenworthy. She expects to spend part of the summer in Montana.

Many former students of Pacific College returned to their alma mater to partake of the annual alumni banquet, which was given at Canyon hall on June 15.

Delbert Replogle left for Washington Saturday, June 13. He expects to spend most of his vacation with his parents near Deer- ing, Alaska.

As the result of the entertainment given by the dormitory students, the parlors present a much more homelike appearance. The enlarged opening between the two rooms, the new paper and repainted wood work all add greatly to the attractiveness of the rooms.

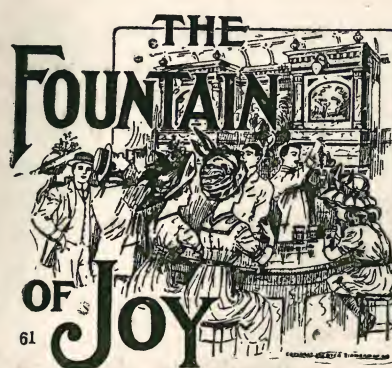

Miss Corinne Bartholomew, of Everett, Washington, a former Pacific College student, has been visiting her friend, Miss Gladys Hannon, for the past two weeks,

Y. M. and Y. W. Reception.

The Y. M. and Y. W. reception for the seniors was given Friday evening, June 5, in Canyon hall. The plans had been to have a garden party, but the weather was not favorable, so it was held in the parlors of the hall, which were artistically decorated. Games were played and every one enjoyed themselves. Later refreshments were served in the dining room, the color scheme of seal brown and Alice blue being carried out.

Remember that Monday, September 21, is the date for the College opening.

Where He Drew the Line

An Eastern college graduate applied for work in a Michigan lumber camp. He was told to get busy on one end of a cross-cut-saw, the other end being in charge of an old and experienced lumberman. At first all went well, but by the second day the young man's strength began to wane. Suddenly the old man stopped the saw.

"Sonny," he said, not unkindly, "I don't mind yer ridin' on this saw, but, if it's jest the same to you, I wish you'd keep yer feet off the ground."

Pat's "System"

Two Irishmen, on their way home from a funeral, were conversing about the uncertainty of life. Says Pat:

"Sure and I'd give a thousand dollars, Moike, if I knew th' place where I was goin' t' die."

"Faith, Pat, and pwhat good would that do yez?"

"Begorra, I'd niver go near th' place a'tall," says Pat.—The Keystone Traveler:

Teacher explained the injustice done by Nero. Then he asked questions:

"Now, boys, do you think he was a good man?"

"No one answered. Teacher singled out a boy. "Chancey, what do you think? Do you think he was straight?"

"Well," returned the boy, after a long wait, "he never done nuthin' to me."

A Caustic Critic.

The Paris critic Martin once only had taken his chocolate in a place other than the Cafe Foy, and he then found it not good. This happened at the Regence, and the young woman at the desk, to whom he expressed his displeasure, said: "You are the only one to complain. All of the gentlemen of the court who come here find it good."

"They also say, perhaps, that you are pretty," he replied slowly.

How to Win Beauty.

Full of good common sense is the suggestion in the Journal of the American Medical association on how to be beautiful. "For giving the face a good color," the expert says, "get one pot of rouge and one rabbit's foot. Bury them two miles from home and walk out and back once a day to see if they are still there."

Careless Mistress.

"Please, 'm, you said this morning that was the breakfast gong."—London Sketch.

Compensation.
